

Be an early Bird... and start your Career!

- a lecture for international Master and PhD-students

You are in your first or second semester at JLU and have taken your first steps at university?

Congratulations! Now is the time to think about your plans for the future.

This workshop will give you an overview of how to prepare your entry into the German job market. We will provide you with information about which steps to take during your studies, where you can get help along the way and why it is worth it to start as early as possible.

There will also be time for your individual questions.

You will find the upcoming events here:
