II. Organizational Context and Purpose for the job

The fundamental mission of UNICEF is to promote the rights of every child, everywhere, in everything the organization does — in programmes, in advocacy and in operations. The equity strategy, emphasizing the most disadvantaged and excluded children and families, translates this commitment to children's rights into action. For UNICEF, equity means that all children have an opportunity to survive, develop and reach their full potential, without discrimination, bias or favoritism. To the degree that any child has an unequal chance in life — in its social, political, economic, civic and cultural dimensions — her or his rights are violated. There is growing evidence that investing in the health, education and protection of a society's most disadvantaged citizens — addressing inequity — not only will give all children the opportunity to fulfill their potential but also will lead to sustained growth and stability of countries. This is why the focus on equity is so vital. It accelerates progress towards realizing the human rights of all children, which is the universal mandate of UNICEF, as outlined by the Convention on the Rights of the Child, while also supporting the equitable development of nations.

Job organizational context:

The Social Policy Officer reports to the Chief Social Policy.

Purpose for the job:

The economic crisis in Sudan continues to worsen, with a major acceleration in the fall of the value of the Sudanese pound versus the US dollar and the rate of inflation. On 10 September, the Sudanese authorities declared an economic state of emergency. This is the third emergency declared in Sudan since March 2020. Sudan declared a COVID-19 health emergency in March and a three-month state of emergency over heavy seasonal rains and floods just last week. The triple emergencies are causing extreme economic hardships to children and families driving them deeper into poverty.

The Social Policy section was established in 2018 as part of the new 2018-2021 Country Programme with specific focus on upstream policy advocacy, evidence generation and capacity building at the national level. The section is currently staffed by a P4 Chief and 1 NOC Social Policy FT.
